

OKLAHOMA NATHAN SHOCK CENTER

The Oklahoma Nathan Shock Center mentorship program provides support to early career scientist new to aging research or are starting an independent research program focused on aging or on geroscience.

Applicants accepted into the NSC program will work with its leaders and faculty on all aspects of project development, from discussion of research questions through refinement of experimental design (including in-kind research support through the Oklahoma NSC cores) to the preparation and development of grant applications.

MENTORSHIP

PROGRAM

Submit a proposal today!

oklahomanathanshockcenteronaging.com

